Artistic Council: Radosław Wilkiewicz, Robert Wasilewski, Bogdan Narloch, Monika Zytke

II Goals of the Competition

1. Popularization of the idea of choral singing.
2. Performance confrontation and gaining artistic experience by participants.
3. Improving the performance level of choirs and conductors, expanding and presenting the repertoire.
4. Exchange of experiences and creative thoughts, creating interpersonal bonds and consolidating the choral environment, also in terms of generations.
5. Interest in choral music to a wider audience.

III Assumptions of the Competition

1. Only amateur choir groups from Poland and abroad can participate in the Competition.
2. The competition takes place in four categories:
 - A - school choirs (choir members must be of school age - up to 19 years of age)
 - B - adult choirs (choir members must be over 18 years old).
 - C – senior choirs (choir members must be over 60 years old)
 - D – open in terms of age (choirs that cannot be assigned to categories A, B or C).
 - E – vocal groups (open age category, maximum 12 singers).In categories A, B, C up to 15% of team members may deviate from the age requirements.
3. In categories A, B, C, D, teams must have a minimum of 12 singers on stage.
4. In all categories, teams prepare a program of songs for the Jury's evaluation, at least 2 of which will be sung a cappella. There will be a piano on the stage. The total time the band stays on stage cannot exceed 15 minutes.
5. The choirs' performances will be assessed by a jury composed of recognized choral authorities appointed by the organizers. The jury will evaluate the following elements: intonation, timbre, voice emission, interpretation, verbal and musical articulation, musical expression and selection of repertoire. The jury's verdict is final. The jury report will be published on the competition website after the official announcement of the results.
6. In each category there is: the Main Prize and, depending on the number of points obtained, Diplomas: Gold, Silver, Bronze with the specified number of points received (max. 100 points). All teams receive a diploma of participation in the Competition.
7. In each category, the Moniuszko Laurel will be awarded for the best performance of a work or arrangement of a work by Stanisław Moniuszko.

8. In each category, the Kashubian Laurel will be awarded for the best performance of a work in the Kashubian language.
9. The organizers also reserve the possibility of special prizes, in cash and in kind, depending on financial possibilities and sponsors obtained.
10. Based on artistic considerations, the jury may not award individual prizes or may divide them differently in consultation with the competition organizers.
